

CIRCA JEWELS

OUR PROCESS

At CIRCA we know there are as many reasons to sell your jewelry as there are stories to tell.

CIRCA's company policy is founded on being consumer advocates first and foremost. By being truthful and transparent throughout the entire process, a process which is often viewed with some apprehension, CIRCA allows for openness and honesty to prevail in each transaction. Selling your jewelry is a comfortable conclusion to this process.

Step 1: Contact Us at 877.876.5493 or Email US

CIRCA currently has offices in New York, Palm Beach, San Francisco, Chicago, Washington DC and Hong Kong but works with clientele from everywhere in America, and around the globe, by mail or in-person.

Step 2: Assessing Your Piece

Schedule an appointment or visit one of CIRCA's offices to meet with a member of CIRCA's dedicated and knowledgeable staff. Each one of your pieces will be assessed separately, noting its value and history.

CIRCA specializes in assessing and purchasing diamonds, fine jewelry and watches. CIRCA looks to acquire jewelry made by famous makers, such as Cartier, Van Cleef & Arpels, Tiffany and for watches made by Rolex, Patek Philippe, Vacheron, Breguet and others. However, CIRCA is certain to approach a one-carat diamond engagement ring with the same attention to detail as an entire collection of rare art deco pieces.

Step 3: Selling Your Piece

CIRCA allows you to make informed decisions on each piece, with payment offered on the spot if you choose to sell. There is no predetermined limit or minimum price and no commission charges or fees applied.

CIRCA understands that selling your treasured items is a very emotional process and we take this responsibility seriously. There is nothing more important to CIRCA than your satisfaction when it comes to price, service and integrity.
